

Pewabic Pottery in Detroit

Tuesday, July 14, 2020

Founded in 1903, Pewabic Pottery contributed to the International Arts and Crafts Movement and development of ceramic art in America. Famous for its iridescent glazes covering pottery and tiles, Pewabic Pottery installations can be found in national locations including the Shedd Aquarium (Chicago), Harold Square (New York City), and the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception (Washington, D.C.). A visit to the Detroit Institute of the Arts provides a docent-guided tour with special focus on the Pewabic Pottery collection. Following lunch at the DIA, visit Pewabic Pottery for a guided tour to see the studio where clay is made and tiles are pressed and glazed, and the kilns where the pieces are fired. Then, create your very own tile during a *hands-on workshop! There will be time to explore the museum, exhibition space, and gallery shop before departing Pewabic Pottery.

Trip Includes: Deluxe, motorcoach transportation, Detroit Institute of the Arts admission with guided tour, lunch at DIA (on own with included stipend), Pewabic Pottery admission with guided tour and tile-making workshop*, escorted and worry-free travel. *Tiles will be complete several weeks after trip date with delivery arrangements facilitated by Coach USA Tours.

Insurance: Travel Insurance is optional. To be eligible for the waiver of pre-existing medical condition exclusion, the protection plan must be purchased within 15 days from the time you make your initial trip deposit and for the prepaid non-refundable payments or deposits. If purchased, the insurance premium is refundable during the 15-day review period, unless you have filed a claim or departed on your trip. The insurance premium is non-refundable after the 15-day review period. To view/download the Policy, go to: <http://policy.travelexinsurance.com/312A-1217>.
