Begin your day with a visit to the Big Mac Museum Restaurant to see the World's largest Big Mac! At Craftique Collections you will find a large shop offering a wide selection of goods from clothing, candles, candies to furniture and jewelry. There are dozens of small booths stocked by local crafters and suppliers.

Lunch will be at DeNunzio's Restaurant at the Arnold Palmer Regional Airport located just off the Lincoln Highway.

At the Lincoln Highway Museum you will see nostalgic photos and artifacts of travel along the road. Learn about the origins of the highway and some of the things that evolved into everyday life as a result of this amazing route that travels all the way across our country. Enjoy pie and coffee in the diner.

Next you will arrive at the Compass Inn Museum that has been situated on Route 30 in the village of Laughlintown since its origins as an inn in 1799. Docents will share what it was like as a busy inn for travelers.

You will conclude Route 30 at The Original Pie Shop which is across the street from Compass Inn. You will receive an individual size pie, plus you may purchase some of the best baked goods to be found anywhere along Route 30! (L)
