

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

New Tour!!!

The Connellsville Canteen displays Harry Clark's H0 Scale model railroad. Supposedly, it is one of the most incredibly built model railroads one will ever see. It is 22 by 50 feet and models the peak years of railroading, 1940-1955 with long, long trains gliding gracefully through broad curves and up 2% mountainous grades. The railroad is located in the Connellsville Canteen, a recreated B & O Train Station that commemorates the women who served the troops on trains passing through during WWII. Step back to the 1940s and hear stories of what local heroes did to protect the freedoms we have today. Next to the Canteen and Train Display you find the Appalachian Creativity Center, a unique gallery featuring artwork and various crafts of local artists.

Stop at Colebrook Chocolates and Craftique Collections in Greensburg where you'll enjoy browsing through floral goods, candles, candies, artwork, jewelry and much more.

Walk through Ramada's Hotel Parade of Trees. Vote on the best tree and a winner is chosen; Dinner will be served in an old restored train station. (D)
